THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From June 17. to June 24. 1736.

The SPEECH of the HONOURABLE PATRICK GORDON, Eſq;

Lieutenant Governor of the Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex on Delaware, and Province of Pennſylvania;

To the Aſſembly of the ſaid Counties, met at New-Caſtle, the 17th Day of June, 1736.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

AT ſetting out for this Place, I believed I was ſo far recovered from the ſevere Illneſs that prevented my meeting you here in October laſt, as to be able to bear the Fatigue of a Journey; but I find myſelf greatly indiſpoſed by it. I am nevertheleſs pleaſed with the Opportunity now given me by your own Adjournment, of ſeeing the Repreſentatives of the good People of theſe Counties; and as on all former Occaſions of this kind, I have had very juſt Reaſon to expreſs my Satisfaction with the Conduct of the ſeveral Aſſemblies conven'd ſince my Adminiſtration, and to acknowledge their kind Regard towards myſelf, I have no Room to doubt the Continuance of every good Diſpoſition in you, that may tend to advance the Honour of the Government, and the true Intereſt of its Inhabitants; both which I have ſo ſincerely at Heart, that nothing can be reaſonably propoſed for ſtrengthening and eſtabliſhing them, that I will not moſt chearfully come into.

The Proviſion made at your former Seſſion by the Bill then tranſmitted to me at Philadelphia, is an Inſtance of your Prudence and Care, that I cannot paſs over unobſerved; in which, as you then had my ready Concurrence, you have now my Thanks for that Service done to the Publick.

It will undoubtedly be agreeable to you to know, that our Honourable Proprietors are aſſiduous in their Endeavours, for bringing to a final Deciſion thoſe unhappy Diſputes, that have been ſo injurious to their Intereſt, and have given ſo great Uneaſineſs to ſome of the Inhabitants of theſe Counties, in as expeditious a Manner, as the Forms and Rules of that High Court, where the Cauſe is now depending, will admit of.

Having Nothing of Moment at this time, to recommend particularly to your Conſideration, I ſhall only deſire, that the uſual Buſineſs of the Year, and what further ariſes from amongſt yourſelves, may receive all proper Diſpatch, that you may be the ſooner at Liberty to return, at this buſy Seaſon, to your Private Affairs.

To the Honourable PATRICK GORDON, Eſq; Lieutenant Governor of the Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex on Delaware, and the Province of Pennſylvania.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Repreſentatives of the Freemen of the ſaid Counties, in General Aſſembly met.

May it pleaſe your Honour,

'AT our Adjournment in October laſt, we hop'd, that 'the ſevere Illneſs you then labour'd under, would 'be ſo removed, as to enable you to meet the Repreſen'tatives of this Government at this time, without endan'gering your Health; and we are heartily ſorry for your 'preſent Indiſpoſition, which we hope will not be of long 'Continuance.

'We cannot but be pleaſed with the Satisfaction you 'expreſs of the Conduct of the ſeveral Aſſemblies of this 'Government, ſince your Adminiſtration, and we aſſure 'your Honour, that we ſhall not be wanting, to uſe our 'ſincere Endeavours for promoting the Honour of the Go'vernment and the Intereſt of the Inhabitants, who muſt 'with Gratitude acknowledge the good Inclinations you 'have expreſs'd for their Welfare.

'The Bill tranſmitted to your Honour at our laſt Seſſi'on, we conceived to be highly neceſſary for the Peace and 'Safety of this Government; and we were then well pleaſed 'with your Honour's Concurrence with us, in what ſo 'nearly concern'd the Publick.

'The Diſpute between our Honourable Proprietors and 'the Lord Baltimore, has indeed been the Cauſe of great 'Diſquiet in this Government; but as you are pleaſed to 'inform us that our Proprietors are aſſiduous to bring it to 'a final Deciſion, as ſoon as poſſible; we hope their En'deavours will be attended with Succeſs to themſelves, 'and the Satisfaction and Advantage of our Conſtituents.

'We ſhall not fail to give all the Diſpatch to ſuch 'Matters as lie before us, and require the immediate Care 'of the Legiſlature, that the Nature of the Buſineſs will 'admit of, and as may be conſiſtent with your Honour's 'State of Health. Signed by Order of the Houſe,

The Governor's ANSWER.

Gentlemen,

I Very heartily thank you for the kind Concern you expreſs on Account of my Indiſpoſition, which obliges me to return as ſoon as poſſible to Philadelphia: While it is in my Power to do any agreeable Service to the good People of this Government, they may depend I will not be wanting to make them proper Returns for the Goodwill and Regard I have experienced amongſt them: And if it ſhall pleaſe God to remove me from you, I leave my real and ſincere good Wiſhes for the Proſperity and Happineſs of theſe Counties.

Frederica in Georgia the 12th of April, 1736.

THERE is a Town laid out here, and 37 Palmetto Houſes built, in which all the People are ſheltered till they can build better. The Town Lotts are already given out to each Family; thoſe upon the Strand conſiſt of 30 Feet in Front, and 60 Feet in Depth; thoſe farther from the River are 60 Feet in Front;

upon

upon 90 Feet in Depth. The Garden Lotts of one Acre each which are within half a Mile of the Town, are already marked out, and Poſſeſſion will be given to the People on Monday next; beſides which the People in common plant Corn in an old Indian-field of about 60 Acres. There is a Team of Horſes and a Plough, with which there is ſome Ground turned up, and in it ſome Flax and Hemp-ſeed ſowed, as alſo half an Acre of Barley, which is come up very well, and ſome Lucern-graſs. We have a pretty deal of Potatoes in the Ground, and ſhould have had more, but the labouring Men which were to have gone to the Northward, being not arriv'd, Mr. Ogletborpe hired ſeveral of our Freeholders to build a Fort, which is now near finiſhed, it conſiſts of four Bulwarks, and a Ditch with ſome Out-works, frazed round with Cedar Poſts; the Works are faced with green Sod, which grows very well.

Capt. Mc Pherſon came over Land from Savannah to Darien, which lies 16 Miles above us, upon this River; there are above 100 Highlanders there, who bear Arms; ſince that Mr. Hugh Mackay and Mr. Auguſtine came over Land with 15 Horſes from Savannah to Darien, and run a traverſe Line all the way, by which they find it to be 70 Miles in a ſtrait Line and 90 by the Places where the Swamps are paſſable. Mr. Ogletborpe, has agreed with Capt. Mc Pherſon to deliver him a large quantity of Cattle at the Darien, ſo that we ſhall be ſupplied this Summer with freſh Beef, and have already an open Communication by Land with Carolina and all North America.

Tomachichi Mico, Tooanahowi his Nephew and a large party of Indians came down to Mr. Ogletborpe, and brought in as many Deer as fed the whole Colony for ſome Days; they told him they would go hunt the Buffaloe as far as the Spaniſh Frontiers; but he being apprehenſive from ſome ſuſpicious Words, that they deſigned to fall upon the Spaniſh Outguards, told them he would go with them. They ſaid then that they would ſhow him (as they promiſed to the King in England) what Lands belonged to their Nation. The firſt Day they carried him to an Iſland at the Mouth of Jekyl Sound, where on a high Ground commanding the Paſſes of the River he left a large Party of Highlanders under the command of Mr. Hugh Mackay, Lieut. in his Majeſty's Service, marked out a Fort, which at their deſire he called St. Andrew's, and Tooanahowi pulling out a Watch given him in England by his Royal Highneſs the Duke, gave the Name Cumberland, to the Iſland in memory of his Royal Highneſs.

Next Day they paſſed the Clothogotheo, another Branch of the Alatamaha, and diſcovered another fine Iſland about 16 Miles long, with Oranges, Mirtle and Vines growing wild, to which he gave the Name of Amelia in memory of her Highneſs the Princeſs Amelia. And the third Day arriving near the Spaniſh Look-out, the Indians ſhowed their deſire of falling upon the Spaniards, to prevent which Mr. Ogletborpe left them upon an Iſland, and having run down the River St. Wan's, doubled Point St. George, being the North-point of St. John's River, and the Southward-moſt Point of his Majeſty's Dominions upon the Sea Coaſt of North America. The Spaniards being in poſſeſſion, and having a Guard, called a Look-out, on the other ſide of the ſaid River.

That Night Mr. Ogletborpe met the Boat with Major Richards, who was returned from eſcorting the Gentleman ſent by the Spaniſh Ambaſſador in London to the Governor of Auguſtine. Tomachichi Mico and his Indians having firſt diſcovered them in the Night, would have cut them into Pieces, taking them for Spaniards, and were with much difficulty prevented by Mr. Ogletborpe from charging them.

On his Return, Mr. Ogletborpe called at St. Andrew's, and was agreeably ſurprized to find the Fort in a State of Defence; he thanked the Highlanders for their Diligence, and offer'd to carry any of them back that cared to leave the Place; but not one of them would do ſo, ſaying that whilſt there was danger they would ſtay, though they ſhould loſe their next Harveſt.

Here are two Ships, the James Capt. John Yoakley, and the Peter and James Capt. Geo. Dymond, both riding cloſe under the Fort. We have a Magazine 60 Foot long, 18 Foot wide, and three Stories high, almoſt finiſhed. Mr. Jonathan Bryan, Mr. Barnwell, Mr. Horton and Mr. Tanner accompanied Mr. Oglethorpe in his Cruize to the Southward, and behaved extremely well.

The Country as far as St. Wan's River was conquered from the Spaniards in Queen Ann's War, and was in poſſeſſion of our Allied Indians at the Treaty of Utrecht, therefore by the Articles of that Treaty, which ſays that all Territories in America ſhall remain to thoſe who are in poſſeſſion of them, theſe Lands being in poſſeſſion of the Indians who are Allies to Great Britain, and have ſince made them over to the King, they belong to the King of Great Britain.

Frederica, April 14. The Spaniards having complained that the Indians fell upon them from all Quarters, Mr. Ogletborpe has ſent down two Boats well fitted out, to patrole, upon the River St. John's, to give notice to his Friendly Indians not to paſs the Rivers, and thereby prevent their doing any miſchief the Spaniards; and Major Richards is gone on board the Boats with Anſwers to the Spaniſh Governor's Letters, and to acquaint him of the Meaſures Mr. Ogletborpe has taken for preventing the Indians from moleſting them.

A Detachment of 30 Men from the Independent Company at Port Royal arrived here yeſterday, under the Command of Enſign Delegall. Mr. Ogletborpe ſent them down immediately to the Sea point of this Iſland, 7 Miles from hence and went down in the Scout Boat, to ſhow them the Ground, had a Well immediately dug, where they found good Water. They have entrenched themſelves and have mounted ſome Cannon, and there is a Communication by Land from hence opened to them. Several Several Sails have been ſeen off the Coaſt, and Advices are come from Auguſtine, that the General had beat to Arms, and that a party of the Garriſon and all the Horſe was marched out. It was alſo reported there, that a ſtrong Detachment and ſome large Ships were coming from Cuba, in order to aſſiſt them againſt the Engliſh, but this laſt Report wants Confirmation.

It is certain that the Spaniards are ſettling a Town in the Apellachee old Fields, which was conquered from them by the Engliſh and the Creek Indians during the late War.

The Man of War is not yet arrived. Advices are come from the Garriſon at the Sea Point, that they have heard ſeveral Guns fired far out at Sea, and have ſeen ſome Ships lying off and on. The upper Fort at St. Andrew's is finiſh'd, and the Guns mounted, and the Palliſadoes are ready for the lower Fort.

Extract of a Letter from Georgia, dated April 21.

Mr. Houſtoun brings Account from Frederica, that ſome of the Creek Indians have been and cut off one of the Spaniſh Garriſons oppoſite to St. Juan's, and kill'd and taken 7 of the Spaniards which were all in the Fort. The Governor of St. Auguſtine ſent to Mr. Ogletborpe to demand Satisfaction, and ſays he could find but two of his Men, which were both dead in the Fort.

Charles-Town, May 29. Laſt Saturday Morn between 9 and 10, Mr. Charles Lowndes, (who, being parted from his Wife, was put in Priſon by Order of the Governor and Council for not being willing to allow her a Maintenance) ſhot himſelf thro' the Head, and inſtantly died. He left upon the Table ſeveral Writings, the firſt was dated Nov. 5. 1735, and directed to Arthur Middleton, Ralph Izard, Col. Blake and Nath. Broughton, Eſqrs; wherein he gives a full Account of his Misfortunes he met with ſince his Arrival in this Province, by Law-ſuits and otherwiſe; recommends to them the Care of his four Children, and pretends to juſtify the Crime of Self-murder he then premeditated. All this is contained in 4 Sheets, and it appears by the Concluſion, that he was then juſt ready to put his Deſign in Execution, but being hindred at that Time, he wrote another Sheet and annexed it without Date. The ſecond was a Letter to the Hon. John Colleton, Eſq; dated March 7. 1735,6. much to the ſame Purpoſe with the former, wherein he exclaims againſt ſeveral Perſons, who, he thinks, by their unjuſt Proceedings againſt him, are the Cauſe of this violent Deſign of laying Hands on himſelf: In this Letter he ſays, that he was long Time before prepared to make an End of his unhappy Life, having his Piſtols cock'd ready by his Side, but was hindred by the coming of the ſaid John Colleton, Eſq; to his Houſe, but now he was fully determin'd to clear himſelf or die, by cutting an Artery or ſhooting himſelf through the Head, &c. and that he was very much tempted to kill all his Children, in order to be buried all in one Grave.

He was put in Priſon after this Time, where he wrote another long Memorial of 12 Sheets, which I have not yet ſeen, but am inform'd it contains very odious Reflections upon ſeveral Perſons, which having been wrote by a deſperate Man, ought rather to be ſuppreſſed than publiſhed,. After having finiſhed this Memorial, he ſent a Letter to invite John Colleton, Eſq; to come to his Funeral, and after having ſhav'd and dreſs'd himſelf, he laid down on the Ground, with a loaden Piſtol in each Hand, he put one cloſe to his Temple and blew out his Brains, which were found at a little Diſtance all in one Heap, his Scull being ſplit in two.

PHILADELPHIA, June 24.

Sunday Morning laſt, a Servant Man going into the River under Society-Hill to waſh, ſlip'd into a Place that was more than his Depth, and not knowing to ſwim, was drowned before any could come to his Aſſiſtance.

LONDON, May 1.

Laſt Sunday ſen'night the Count de Uhlfeldt the Emperors Envoy extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, at the Hague, received the News, by an Expreſs, of the Death of Prince Eugene of Savoy, who on the 10th Inſtant, O. S. in the Morning, when his Gentleman, as uſual, went into his Chamber to awake him, was found Dead in his Bed. His Highneſs was in the 73d Year of his Age, being born the 8th Day of October, 1663.

We hear that the Parliament riſes about Thurſday fortnight, and that his Majeſty ſets out for the German Dominions on the Saturday following.

That an Act is like to paſs, That every Ship that ſhall be built in Great Britain, or in the Britiſh Plantations, in America, from after the 24th of June next, ſhall upon her firſt ſetting out, have one full ſet of Sails made of Britiſh Canvas.

That no Sail-Cloth from and after the 24th Day of June next, be exported to the Britiſh Plantations in America, but only ſuch as is Manufactured in Great Britain or Ireland.

That from and after the 24th of June, 1736, all Britiſh Ships or Veſſels of 200 Tons admeaſurement, or upwards, be furniſhed with one full Suit of Sails made of Britiſh Sail cloth.

By the Publick Prints we find, that the Duke of Chandois is appointed Lord Lieut. of Ireland in the Room of his Grace the Duke of Dorſet.

That the Lord Gage is appointed Governor of Barbadoes.

Laſt Week a Patent paſſed the Great Seal for placing a floating Light at Dudgeon's Shoal on the Coaſt of Norfolk: and we hear the ſame will be moor'd there in the beginning of next Month.
